3. Licensing of Dealers.—(1) No person shall carry on business as a dealer except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a licence issued in this behalf by the Licensing authority.

(2) A separate licence shall be necessary for each place of business.

(3) For the purpose of this clause, any person who, stores sugar in any quantity exceeding 50 quintals at any one time shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to store the sugar for the purpose of sale.

4. Issue of Licence.—(1) Every application for a licence or renewal thereof shall be made to the licensing authority in Form "A".

(2) Every licence issued or renewed under this order shall be in Form "B" and shall be subject to the conditions specified therein.

5. Period of Licence and Fees chargeable.—(1) Every licence issued under this order shall be valid from the date of issue to the 31st of December, 1963 and may thereafter be renewed for a further period of one year at a time.

(2) The fees specified below shall be chargeable in respect of each licence, namely:—

	Rs.
For issue of licence	5.00
For renewal of licence	2.00
For issue of a duplicate licence	10.00

6. Power to refuse licence.—The licensing authority may, after giving the dealer concerned an opportunity of stating his case in writing and for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to grant or renew a licence.

7. Contravention of conditions of licence.—No holder of a licence issued under this order shall contravene any of the terms or conditions of the licence and if any such holder contravenes any of the said terms or conditions then, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, his licence may be cancelled or suspended by order, in writing, of the licensing authority.

Provided that no order shall be made under this clause unless the licensee has been given an opportunity of stating his case in writing against the proposed cancellation or suspension.

8. Appeal.—(1) Any person aggrieved by any order of the licensing authority refusing the issue or renew a licence or cancelling or suspending a licence under the provisions of this order may appeal to the State Government within 30 days of the date of the receipt by him of such order.

(2) No order shall be passed in appeal unless the aggrieved person has been given an opportunity of stating his case in writing.

9. Powers of entry, search, seizure etc.—The licensing authority or any other officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf may, with such assistance if any, as he thinks fit:—

(a) require the owner, occupier or any other person in charge of any place, premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or of the conditions of any licence issued thereunder has been, is being, or is about to be committed, to produce any books, accounts or other documents showing transactions relating to such contraventions;

(b) enter, inspect or break open and search any place or premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or of the conditions of any licence issued thereunder, has been, is being, or is about to be committed;

(c) take or cause to be taken, extracts from or copies of, any documents showing transactions relating to such contraventions which are produced before him;

(d) search, seize, and remove stocks of sugar and the animals, vehicles, vessels, or other conveyance used in carrying the said sugar in contravention of the provisions of this order, or of the conditions of the licences issued thereunder and thereafter take or authorise the taking of all measures necessary for securing the production of stocks of sugar and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyances so seized, in a court and for their safe custody pending such production.

(2) The provisions of sections 102 and 103 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to search and seizure shall, so far as may be, apply to searches and seizures under this clause.
